SELECT A WINNING TICKET

On Saturday, August 2nd, the Democrats of Kentucky have a solemn duty to perform. Men, real men, with the courage of their convictions, must be selected for the various State offices from Governor on down. Kentucky is no longer a State in which anybody can be elected to office just so long as his name is under the Rooster. That day has past and at the present time we find ourselves face to face with the fact that if the Democratic party is to be returned the winner in November we must face the enemy with the strongest candidates available. The past records of the various aspirants have been well advertised, as have also the principles upon which they stand and the measures they endorse. What we need and need badly is business men, successful business men to have charge of the State's affairs at Frankfort. The day of the professional politician and machine politics should have long since been a buried memory within the confines of the Democratic party. Mr. Voter, think well before you cast your ballot, remembering that the State is nothing more or less than a big business institution, and if it is to be run successfully we must nominate and elect men to office who have "no axes to grind" and no political machines to build to elect themselves and friends to office in the future. The crying need at the State Capitol is for business men to run the affairs of State, and the motto of every voter should be, "Down with the professional politician and habitual office seeker." Let's nominate a ticket of clean, successful men and be in a position to face the enemy in November with candidates for the various offices against whom no serious charges can be made and substantiated. Vote for the BEST MEN, for men that CAN and WILL win in November.

WELL STUDIED DELIVERANCE

Senator J. C. W. Beckham's speech to the United States Senate on the League of Nations has met with much favorable comment. In wording, logic and deliverance it goes down in history as a literary gem, worthy of Kentucky's envied traditions. If facts logically presented count for anything convincing, then this gifted Kentuckian has done well. For the adoption of the League of Nations a great majority of our citizenship is committed, and should any partisan spirit undertake to thwart its aims woe to the party so undertaking. The Senator in his inimitable manner, conclusive and convincing, took up the wonderful document in detail, emphasizing old views and presenting its most vital points for thoughtful consideration. The Senator does not claim this League to be a perfect document but one the people are willing to try. He praised former President Taft for favored deliverances. Other agreements and documents have been criticized but out of stinging declarations and harsh denunciations Justice has always risen above mists and cloud bursts and this nation has gone onward and upward to nobler enactments. The Senator's master production reads like an administrative document to Congress and is well worthy of Kentucky's traditions.

The word has gone forth that returning soldiers are much interested in farming. Wouldn't it be fine for the boys if "Uncle Sam" would give of his lands to the soldiers who would agree to enter and work same, thereby making a living by the "sweat of the brow."

LIVE STOCK MARKET

The Chicago livestock market is as follows: Cattle $16.00 per cwt.; hogs $21.85; sheep $9.80; lambs $17.75. That our readers may compare these prices with prices of corresponding week in 1918 we give the averages: Cattle $16.20; hogs $18.00; sheep $13.40; lambs $18.25. Note quite a decline in sheep.

SOCIAL EVENTS

Mrs. Scott Goodmaster has issued invitations to a tea to be given at her home on the Ovingtonville pike Wednesday, July 30th from 4 to 6.

The Young Girls Mission Circle of the Christian church met with Miss Frances Samuels at her home on East High street Monday night. An enjoyable program was rendered after which lovely refreshments were served.

For Mrs. Lloyd

The Junior Women's Club will entertain Wednesday morning with a sewing party at the home of Mrs. Roger Drake, complimentary to Mrs. Mary Crawford Lloyd, who has just returned from France.

For Miss Williamson

Mr. and Mrs. Rezin G. Owings entertained Thursday night at their lovely country home with a dancing party in honor of their attractive young guest, Miss Geraldine Williamson, of Catlettsburg.

Week-End Party

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Botta entertained the following party at "Kirk's Camp" from Saturday until Monday: Misses Carolyn Radloff, Mattie Judy Botta, and Frances Samuels, and Clarence William, Ralph Greene, and Teddy Adams, of Lexington.

Swimming Party

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Collier, Mr. and Mrs. Percy D. Bryan, Mr. and Mrs. Wilmott Powell, Mrs. Mary Crawford Lloyd, Miss Louise Lloyd, Miss Lizzie Prewitt Coleman and Miss Eliza Harris were members of a swimming party at Howards Mill Sunday.

Delightful Dance

Miss Sarah Lipscomb and Miss Lucile Catlett were hostesses Monday evening at an informal dance for the younger set. Among out of town guests were Miss Kitty Prewitt and Mr. Richard Prewitt, of Winchester; Miss Elizabeth Brother, of Owingtonville; Miss Nancy Barbee Wilson, of Paris, and Mr. Charles Taylor, of Little Rock, Ark.

Lawn Fete

Miss Elizabeth Judy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Judy entertained her young friends with a lawn fete at her home on North Sycamore street last Friday evening. The party was given in compliment to Miss Geraldine Williamson, Mrs. R. G. Owings' attractive guest, and to the members of Miss Jess Bascom's house party. Dancing was enjoyed until a late hour, and refreshments were served. There were about sixty guests present, including a number of out of town friends.

Miss Howell Entertains

Miss Katherine Howell entertained at Five Hundred Friday morning at her home on Samuels avenue. At the conclusion of the games a most delicious luncheon was served. Miss Howell's guests included Misses Henrietta Coleman, Elizabeth Coleman, Patty Thompson, Mildred Cresap, of Louisville, Margaret Ramsey, Louise Stone, of Georgetown, Dorothy Tyler, Adelaide Gay, Mary V. For Mrs. McDonald

Mrs. B. J. McDonald was hostess at cards Friday afternoon at her home on Elm street, in honor of her sister-in-law Mrs. Thomas McDonald, of Cincinnati. The best score was made by Mrs. Luther Redmond, who was given the prize, handsome white silk hose, which she graciously presented to the guest of honor. After the game dainty refreshments were served. Mrs. McDonald's guest list included: Mrs. John McDonald, Mrs. Thomas McDonald, Miss Gertrude McNamara, Mrs. J. B. McNamara, of Memphis, Tenn., Miss Mamie King, Miss Margaret King, Mrs. Joe Conroy, Mrs. John Walsh, Mrs. Richard E. Punch, Mrs. Luther Redmond, Miss Pauline Curry, of Cincinnati, Mrs. Donald Martin, Miss Anita Shannon, of Dallas, Texas, Miss Mary McDonald and Miss Lillian Welsh.

Saltans Dance

The dance given by the Saltans Club at Trimble Hall, Thursday evening was one of the most brilliant events of the season, and was largely attended by the young society set from this and surrounding towns. The dance hall was beautifully decorated, the colors, white and green, being used with artistic effect. South's orchestra, of Lexington, furnished the music, playing all the latest airs as well as a number of the old time favorites. The grand march was led by the Club President Howell C. Reese, and his partner, Miss Elizabeth McCann, who introduced many novel and intricate figures. At intermission a most delicious plate luncheon was served by Coleman and May, caterers. Chaptering the dance were: Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Coleman, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Chiles, Mr. and Mrs. Pierce Winn, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Sentz, Mr. and Mrs. Josh Owings, Mr. and Mrs. Dillard Douglas, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Clay Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Rodman, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley O. ANANIAS

You can't hide from the All-seeing-eyes. No matter how hard you may try, Fair sampe-Ananias, with a lie, To St. Peter, and there did die.

His wife Sapphira backing him up, Lie, went to pieces very abrupt. When he together with wife were told Of the lie, 'bout the land they sold.

Each falling down they gave up the ghost, Were buried in grave side by side. Should God "Knock-out", there would be a host, Just now, if He hit all who lied.

There are those today, try to deceive, Recite things they know is not so, When making a deed, have you believe, A big lie, on record to go.

Sapphira, as most all women will, Stood by husband, even to kill. You can't "get by"! Peter's on guard! Can't fool him, try ever so hard!

Some day you may deceive, you can not God. With Saint Peter, He's "on the job". Cut your goods straight, not on the bias, If inclined to lie—Think of Ananias. McKee.

What the Public Records and Prominent Citizens of Perry County Show as to the Past Political Conduct of John B. Eversole, Candidate for Railroad Commissioner.

Made the Race for County Attorney of Perry County on the Democratic Ticket in 1909 Against C. W. Napier, the Republican Nominee.

STATE OF KENTUCKY,
COUNTY OF PERRY, Set.

The affiant, James Holliday, states that he is 32 years of age, and that he resides at Hazard, Perry county, Kentucky; that he has been Jailor of said county, and is the present Republican County Chairman of said county; that he is well acquainted with Mr. John B. Eversole, who is asking the Republicans to nominate him for Railroad Commissioner of this district.

The affiant says that the said Eversole in the year 1909 was a candidate for County Attorney of Perry county, Kentucky, in the Republican primary, but was defeated for the nomination, and that in the final election following said primary, he had his name, by petition, placed on the Democratic ticket under the Rooster, and in said final election, he was defeated by the Republican nominee. In the year 1913, Mr. Eversole was again a candidate for County Attorney in the Republican primary in Perry county, but was again defeated, and in the final election following said primary, he bolted the ticket and fought against the nominees of the Republican party. In the year 1917, Mr. Eversole went over Perry county and canvassed the county for an Independent ticket, and supported a Democrat for County Judge against the Republican nominee, and helped to defeat the Republican nominee, with a Democrat.

JAMES HOLLIDAY.

Subscribed and sworn to before me by James Holliday this the 15th day of July, 1919.

NANNIE L. DUNCAN,

Notary Public, Perry County, Ky.
My Commission expires September 6, 1921.

STATE OF KENTUCKY,
COUNTY OF PERRY,

The affiant, E. C. Duff, states on oath that he was County Judge of Perry county during the four years, 1914-15-16-17; that he was elected to said office on the Republican ticket, and that he was renominated on said ticket for said office in the year 1917, but was defeated that fall. He says that he has heard read the foregoing affidavit of James Holliday and that the statements therein are true and correct, as he verily believes.

E. C. DUFF,

Subscribed and sworn to before me by E. C. Duff, this the 15th day of July, 1919.

NANNIE L. DUNCAN,

My Commission expires September 6, 1921.

Nomination Petition of J. B. Eversole Filed in 1909.

To the Hon. S. B. Johnson, Clerk of the Perry County Court, Hazard, Ky.: We, the undersigned citizens of Perry county, Kentucky, whose Post Office addresses are set opposite each of our names, hereby request and petition you to cause to be printed on the ballots to be used in the election of the county officers for Perry county on the 2nd day of November, 1909, in the presence of names of the Democratic candidates for said offices, the name of J. B. Eversole as the Democratic candidate for the office of County Attorney of said county. Said J. B. Eversole resides at Hazard, Kentucky, in election precinct No. 10, in Perry county, Kentucky, and is legally qualified to hold the office of County Attorney for Perry county, Kentucky.

We whose names are subscribed hereto, are legally qualified and desire to vote for said J. B. Eversole for said office.

You are requested to cause his name to be printed upon the ballot aforesaid under the title of the Democratic party and under its device, to-wit, THE ROOSTER.

STATE OF KENTUCKY,
COUNTY OF PERRY.

I, B. P. Combs, Clerk of the County and State aforesaid, do certify that the foregoing instrument of writing (omitting names of petitioners) is a true and correct copy as appears of record in my said office.

Witness my hand this 25th day of June, 1919.

B. P. COMBS, Clerk.

Perry County Court.

On the back of the foregoing petition is the following endorsement: Filed in my office Oct. 11, 1909, at 4 o'clock P. M. S. B. Johnson, Clerk; by Arch Cornett, Jr., D. C.

The time having arrived for the meeting of the Board of Election Commissioners of Perry county, Ky., the same being the third day after the November Election, 1909, and the 5th day of November, 1909, for the purpose of canvassing and certifying the returns of the election held in said county on the 2nd day of November, 1909, and M. C. Eversole, Sheriff of Perry County and Chairman of said Board and P. T. Wheeler, Secretary of said Board, being present, proceeded to canvass said election returns.

Now we, the Board of Election Commissioners of Perry County, on this the 5th day of November, 1909, met and organized and proceeded to canvass and certify the election returns of Perry County for the election held in said county on the 2nd day of November, 1909, and after carefully canvassing said returns find the result as follows, viz.: For County Attorney, Perry county: C. W. Napier 1,218
J. B. Eversole 649

STATE OF KENTUCKY,
COUNTY OF PERRY.

I, B. P. Combs, Clerk of the County and State aforesaid, do certify that the foregoing instrument of writing is a true and correct copy as appears of record in my said office.

Witness my hand this 25th day of June, 1919.

B. P. COMBS, Clerk.
Perry County Court.

This is what the public records of Perry county show. This is John B. Eversole's home county, and the fact that this same John B. Eversole has not since the year 1909 supported the Republican ticket in that county will be verified by B. P. Combs, present County Court Clerk of that county; by Frank Horn, ex-Republican County Chairman, and ex-Sheriff there; by A. B. Combs, ex-Sheriff of that county, all of whom are Republicans and can be reached by letter or telegram at Hazard, Ky., and by any other loyal Republican of Perry County, the county that Eversole claims to be his home.—Advertisement.
